

228

By

David E. Weischadle

DW GLOBAL

STRATEGIES, INC.

www.228thenovel.com

Synopsis:

A young lieutenant arrives in Nha Trang assigned to the 228 Signal Company, expecting the usual tour fraught with complaints, combat and uncomfortable conditions. Instead, Lt. David Whitehead encounters a nightmare of murder, greed, deceit and mortal danger. His comrades murdered, a renegade CIA agent using him to move contraband throughout the country and a host of unseen and unknown enemies all create a whirlwind journey as Lt. Whitehead struggles to find the truth in a land shrouded in mystery and intrigue.

For more information, visit the website: <http://www.228thenovel.com>

Specs:

- ISBN-13: 978-0615940229
- 6 x 9 Paperback
- 274 pages

Availability:

- From the Publisher, DW Global Strategies, Inc.
- Barnes & Noble special order & through BN.com
- Amazon
- Amazon Kindle

For more information, review copies or to schedule an interview, contact:

Granary Way Media LLC
609-558-7332
info@granarywaymedia.com

About the Author:

David E. Weischadle is an educator, writer, and consultant. He holds a doctorate from Rutgers University which he earned under the GI Bill. He is now professor emeritus at Montclair State University in New Jersey. He continues to teach at a number of universities and colleges. He has published widely in professional journals, periodicals, and leading newspapers such as The New York Times.

Dr. David Weischadle is also President of DW Global Strategies, Inc. DW Global Strategies is an educational and management consulting firm dedicated to serving its clients by providing personal and sensitive programs and services.

Dr. Weischadle served as a Captain in the United States Army. He was a platoon leader, executive officer, and acting company commander with the 228 Signal Company in Vietnam (1966-1967). Many of the locations featured in 228 are actual places in Vietnam and were sites where the company had units and teams.

The author served as a member of the New Jersey Vietnam Memorial Commission and assisted in the development of the memorial and education center. The Memorial was dedicated by Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf in 1994.

He lives with his wife in New Jersey and Massachusetts. They have two sons who are attorneys and are principals in Granary Way Media LLC, a television and radio production company in Princeton, New Jersey.

Many of the locations mentioned in 228 are actual places in Vietnam visited by the author during his tour of duty (1966-1967). Below are photos taken by the author himself. Click on the thumbnails below to get a larger image of the photo. More will be added in the coming weeks.

Photo 1. Headquarters, 228 Signal Co.

Photo 2. Giant White Buddha, Vietnam.

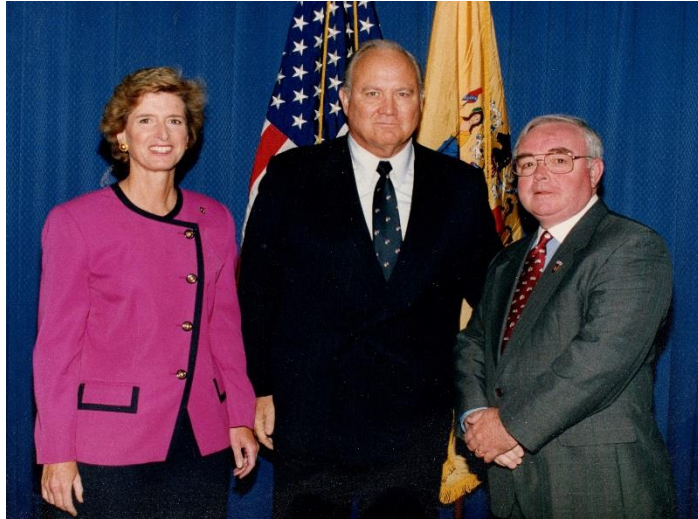

Photo 3. Francois Restaurant, Cau Da

Photo 4. Hon Tre Island from the air

IN THE MEDIA

*With NJ Governor Christie Todd Whitman &
General Norman Schwarzkopf at the dedication
Of the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans Memorial*

*With wife, MaryAnn, and NJ Governor Jim Florio
At appointment to New Jersey Vietnam
Veterans Memorial Commission*

